

SEP 23 1954

At two early evening cocktail parties, two German military attaches and their wives said farewell to their friends.

More than 200 guests came to the party given by Rear Admiral Aziz Uluhan, Turkish representative to the NATO standing group, and Mrs. Uluhan at the Bethesda Naval Medical Center Officers' Club.

A series of farewell parties also dominated the diplomatic scene last night.

Collinses Attend

Those attending included the United States representative to NATO and Mrs. J. Lawton Collins, the Chief of Naval Operations and, Mrs. Robert E. Carney, the Army Vice Chief of Staff and Mrs. Charles L. Bolte, Mr. Russell Dorr of the International Bank and Monetary Fund, and Mrs. Dorr; and the heads of foreign military missions from the United Kingdom, France, Denmark, Norway, Greece, and Italy. From the State Department, guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. G. Huntington Damon and Mr. and Mrs. William O. Baxter.

Gen. and Mrs. Bolte also were among the more than 300 guests attending the cocktail party given by the Israel Military, Naval and Air Attache and Mrs. Chaim Herzog, to say good-bye and introduce Col. Herzog's successor, Col. Katriel Salmon, and Mrs. Salmon.

Attending the 6:30-to-9:30 o'clock event at the Israel Chancery were the Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and Mrs. Charles Cabell, the director of Air Force Intelligence and Mrs. John A. Sanford, the director of Naval Intelligence and Mrs. Carl Espe, the assistant chief of staff for Army Intelligence and Mrs. Arthur G. Trudeau, the national commander of the Civil Air Patrol and Mrs. Lucas Beau, the Chief of Protocol and Mrs. John F. Simmons, the dean of military attaches, Lt. Gen. Cristobal Guzman Cardenas, of the Mexican Embassy, and the chiefs of military missions from Canada, France, Greece and Argentina.